At 0015 A-94 reported in. At 0315 CC"R" began movement from HOELSCHLOCH (070355) to NIEDERBETSCHDORF (132333) and closed 0700A. At 0800 a coordinated attack of Inf and Tanks was launched astride RR from 119366 to a point S of HATTEN (180336) and then N to town of HATTEN and at 1600 entered town of HATTEN.

19, after effective smoke mission from 0800-0845 on town of HATTEN, Bn attacked N from 178330 at 0845 but made little progress. Withdrew S of RR at 1000 because of heavy artillery. Renewed attack at 1100 without success and withdrew at 1300 to vic 163330. At 1600 attack carried into SW portion of HATTEN.

47(-B) attacked in column and supported by fire from vic 174331 until 1400. At 1500 the assault carried into SW portion of HATTEN. After relief by Inf, returned to NIEDERBETSCHDORF for resupply. D-47 during darkness outposted to S of HATTEN.

A-94 screened advance of CC"R" and thereafter protected the right (S) flank and maintained contact with friendly troops on the right.

A-125 prepared bridge at 151331 for demolition and guarded it during darkness.

HEADQUARTERS CC"R"
14TH ARMORED DIVISION, APO 446
U S ARMY

20 January 1945

TO: Lt. Col. HOLDEN

You will withdraw all troops, vehicles, and equipment from your present position starting at 1800 hours tonight. Guides will meet troops at Railroad station (161328) and conduct them to rear areas. Movement must be rapid when started. Equipment, weapons, and vehicles that cannot be removed promptly must be destroyed prior to leaving your position.

Order of withdrawal: Wounded, foot troops, armor.
Five infantrymen will be left with each tank to protect the tanks during their withdrawal.

Three half-tracks will be dispatched to your position at dark to assist in removing casualties and surplus equipment.

You will inform me at my C.P. when you have cleared the Railroad station at 161328.

HUDELSOHN
